

1           Upon review of the status of case and argument by counsel for Petitioner and Respondent, the
2 Court made the following:

3 FINDINGS:

- 4           1. Both parties and counsel were present at the Trial Setting Conference on October 25, 2019
5           where the Court set the two Orders to Show Cause on its own motion.
6           2. The Petition for Dissolution was filed September 5, 2017. Since the filing, there have been a
7           collection of pre-trial orders and trial readiness orders made. Respondent has had adequate
8           time to do things to comply with the court orders.
9           3. Respondent's continued non-compliance with court orders is inexcusable.

10 ORDERS:

- 11           1. The above entitled case may proceed to judgment despite Respondent's failure to serve a 12           Preliminary or Final Declaration of Disclosure.
13           2. Respondent shall be precluded from calling witnesses or admitting exhibits due to her non-
14           compliance with the pre-trial and trial readiness orders.
15           3. Respondent shall be precluded from offering oral testimony as to facts that should have been 16           disclosed in the Preliminary or Final Declaration of Disclosure included but not limited to 17           financial matters.
18           4. The Motion to Disqualify hearing set in Department 2 on January 13, 2020 is off calendar.
19           5. The RFO hearing set in Department 2 on February 18, 2020 is transferred to the parties' home
20           court located in Pomona Courthouse South: 400 Civic Center Plaza, CA 91766, Department
21           B. Notice was given to parties and counsel on January 7, 2020.
22           6. The matter is set for a one-day trial on March 5, 2020 at 8:30 a.m. The parties shall report to 23           Stanley Mosk Courthouse: 111 North Hill Street Los Angeles, CA 90012, Department 2 for 24           trial assignment.
25           7. Petitioner shall serve and file any amended trial documents to include an updated Income and 26           Expense Declaration by February 14, 2020.
